

Finnish Chemical Magazine Kemia-Kemi

EDITORIAL CALENDAR

2017

"Finnish Chemical Magazine is a very important media for our company. The print issue, e-Newsletter and direct e-mails have repeatedly proved their effectiveness as a marketing channel."

Harri Köymäri,
CEO, Hosmed Ltd

REACH THE DECISION-MAKERS

Finnish Chemical Magazine is Finland's only professional magazine dedicated to the field of chemistry. The themes covered include domestic and international developments in chemical and process industries, bioeconomy and circulation economy, chemistry research and education, environment, biotechnology, and nanotechnology.

OVER 10,000 SATISFIED READERS

The readers are professionals and decisionmakers in chemistry and chemistry-related fields. The print issue has over 10,000 readers, and the e-Newsletter over 4,600 subscribers. Half of the readers work in industry and research, one third in colleges and universities. Four out of five are involved in purchasing.

According to reader polls *):

- 98 % of the readers are happy with the contents of the magazine
- 97 % find the magazine interesting and professional
- 95 % read every issue
- 83 % read every issue for at least 30 minutes

*) Focus Master Oy, Innolink Research Oy

The publisher of the Finnish Chemical Magazine is Kem-pulssi Ltd. Supporting organisations of the magazine are Finland's chemical societies and the Chemical Industry Federation of Finland.
